Feel the Heartbeat of Summer with Eaglewood Resort & Spa's
'Sounds of Summer' Concert Series and Overnight Package

Itasca, Ill. (June 11, 2015) - For the seventh year running, Eaglewood Resort & Spa welcomes both guests and local residents to the "Sounds of Summer" concert series. Culminating on Labor Day weekend, the series features the hottest local bands for live performances every Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. on the cozy Prairie River patio.

After a day at the spa or on the greens of the property's award-winning golf course, guests can own the night while singing along to old favorites or just relaxing by the fire pit. House band Frank & Dave will be performing on Fridays, while Saturdays welcome a host of different genres from Motown and classic rock to 80's and island pop.

"Our Sounds of Summer series has quickly become the much anticipated event of the season," said Julie Berry, director of sales and marketing at Eaglewood. "And, while you may only have a weekend or a night to go out, our convenient location and world-class amenities will make you will feel as if you are a world away."

The property is now offering overnight and weekend packages beginning at $189* per night, which include deluxe accommodations for two, breakfast, two drink vouchers, a $25 resort credit and preferred seating for the live music, as well as access to all of the other activities the resort offers.

For locals who can't stay the night, summer fun can still be enjoyed. Eaglewood opens its doors to everyone, encouraging local residents to come and enjoy the music.
