Hear the Sweet Breeze of Summer with Eaglewood Resort & Spa's
'Sounds of Summer' Concert Series and Overnight Package

Itasca, Ill. (May 10, 2016) - For the eighth year in a row, Eaglewood Resort & Spa welcomes both guests and local residents to the "Sounds of Summer" concert series. Starting Memorial Day weekend and culminating on Labor Day weekend, the series features live performances from the hottest local bands every Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. at the cozy Prairie River patio & fire pit.

After a relaxing day at the spa or hitting the links on the property's award-winning golf course, guests can own the night while singing along to old favorites and enjoying freshly grilled summer specialties. House band Frank & Dave will be performing on Fridays, while Saturdays welcome a host of different genres from Motown and classic rock to pop and oldies.

"Over the last few years, our Sounds of Summer concert series has become the much anticipated event of the season," said Julie Berry, director of sales and marketing at Eaglewood. "Even if you only have a weekend or a night to go out and get away, our convenient location and world-class amenities will make you will feel as if you are a world away."

The property is now offering overnight packages beginning at $199* and weekend packages beginning at $169* per night, which include deluxe accommodations for two, breakfast, two drink vouchers, a $25 resort credit and preferred seating for the live music, as well as access to all of the other activities the resort offers.

For locals who can't stay the night, summer fun can still be enjoyed. Eaglewood opens its doors to everyone, encouraging local residents to come and enjoy the music.
