Amplify Your Weekends this Summer with Eaglewood Resort & Spa's
'Sounds of Summer' Concert Series and Overnight Package

Itasca, Ill. (May 16, 2017) - Eaglewood Resort & Spa welcomes both guests and local residents to the "Sounds of Summer" concert series starting May 26, 2017. Culminating on Labor Day weekend, the series features live performances from the hottest local bands every Friday and Saturday at 7 p.m. on the cozy Prairie River patio & fire pit.

After a relaxing day at the spa or hitting the links on the property's award-winning golf course, guests can create warm summer memories with friends while singing along to old favorites, playing a game of bocce ball, and enjoying freshly grilled summer specialties. Guests can even participate in monthly night golf tournaments, using state-of-the-art glow gear equipment.

This year's line-up ensures that audiences of all ages will find something to enjoy. House band Frank & Dave will be performing on Fridays, while Saturdays welcome a host of different genres from Motown and classic rock to pop and oldies.

"Over the last few years, our Sounds of Summer concert series has become the much anticipated event of the season," said Julie Berry, director of sales and marketing at Eaglewood. "Even if you only have a weekend or a night to go out, our convenient location and world-class amenities will make you will feel as if you are a world away."

The property is now offering overnight packages beginning at $219* per night, which include deluxe accommodations for two, breakfast buffet, two drink vouchers, a $25 resort credit and preferred seating for the live music, as well as access to all of the other activities the resort offers.

For locals who can't stay the night, summer fun can still be enjoyed. Eaglewood opens its doors to everyone, encouraging local residents to come and enjoy the music.
